CONTENTS ABOUT AUTHOR Andrew Murray (1828-1917) was a surprisingly prolific Christian author. He lived and lived as a pastor and writer from the towns and villages of southern Africa. All of his publications were originally written in Dutch and then translated into English. As his popularity grew, Murray's books found their way into more than 12 foreign languages during his lifetime alone. Andrew Murray's early writings were written primarily to edify believers, building them with faith, love, and prayer. They include Abif in Christ, the Spirit of Christ, and With Christ in the School of Prayer. Later works relied more on the consecration of the believer by works such as the Holy in Christ and to Be Perfect. Finally, in the last days of his life, Murray raised the issue of the Church and its lack of power on earth. He emphasized the need for a permanent and vital relationship with Jesus Christ and a consistent, hot prayer. Murray was a watchful and intense man, continuing in his writings until his death at the age of eight. His burning desire to transfer everything that lay on his heart and spirit to paper was revealed in the presence of several manuscripts at various stages of completion at the time of his death. Andrew Murray has greatly blessed the Christian world with the richness of his spiritual wisdom and ability to see and respond to the needs of God's people. This book, simple and powerful, is the result of Murray's passionate exploration of the question of surrender: why it would seem impossible and at the same time absolutely necessary; Absolute surrender, The Fruit of the Spirit is love, Separated from the Holy Spirit, Peter's Repentance, Impossible with a Man, Possibly with God, On the Unfortunate Man I Am, The Runner in the Spirit. Workers, take their place every day at the feet of Jesus, in the blessed peace and quiet that come from the knowledge, I do not care, my cares of Him! I have no fear, He takes care of all my fears. This book is amazing. Seriously. It's taking my community by storm, and for good reason. Here lies the question with so many of today's believers, myself included. We love the Lord, we follow Him (or try) and we go to church, but we do not succeed as Christians, we are not every day, and our aspirations come The Workers, take their place every day at the feet of Jesus, in the blessed peace and quiet that come from knowledge- I have no care, my care of His! I have no fear, He takes care of all my fears. This book is amazing. Seriously. It's taking my community by storm, and for good reason. Here lies the question with so many of today's believers, myself included. We love the Lord, we follow Him (or try) and we go to church, but we do not succeed as Christians, we do not daily, and our aspirations come to little. But here Murray examines this problem and sets out the answer - absolute capitulation. There are so many things that I thought piece by piece that he together, and now I can understand. If you are a believer and you seek to follow the Lord, if you are both an unbeliever and you want to understand the true power of God, if you suffer from anxiety, if you doubt, if you want to be closer to God.... read this book. ...
